12.04.200 – Obstructing view at corners prohibited - Penalty for violation

- A. It is unlawful to construct, or maintain or permit to remain any fence or other structure, or any bushes, or other plants, on the corner lot within twenty feet of the corner formed by the intersection of any two street lines, which obstructs the view, at a height of more than thirty inches above the elevation of the center of the street intersection.
- B. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense, and a separate offence shall be deemed committed on each day during or on which such obstruction to view is permitted to remain after notice from the police department or any official of the city to remove the same.
