6.04.130 – Kennel

"Kennel" means any establishment wherein any person engages in the business of boarding, breeding, buying, grooming, letting for hire, training for a fee or selling dogs; provided, however, that the ownership of dogs which are part of the household shall not constitute the operation of a kennel unless more than two dogs aged four months or older are kept in such household. Kennel also shall not include any animal control center as defined in Section 6.04.030 or any pound or similar facility operated by a subdivision of local, state or federal government.
