6.12.140 – Dangerous and vicious animal - Impoundment and disposal

- A. Any animal found in violation of any of the provisions of Section 6.12.130 shall be impounded in the animal control center at its owner's expense and not released before its future maintenance is ruled upon by a court of law.
- B. If any dangerous or vicious animal cannot be taken safely and impounded when necessary for the protection of any person or property, such animal may be slain, by the most humane method available at the site of trouble, by a police officer or other person authorized by the city; provided, however, that in all cases where an animal to be slain is known or suspected to have bitten any person, no injury shall be done to its head, and it shall be the duty of the person euthanizing it to deliver or cause to have delivered the carcass immediately to any place designated by the animal control section for the purpose of rabies examination as prescribed by law.
- C. If any warmblooded animal bites a person and subsequently expires, the bite shall be reported and the carcass delivered immediately to the animal control section or to any place designated by the animal control section for the purpose of rabies examination as prescribed by law.
